Newsletter 15th May 2026

From the Headteacher

Dear Parents/Carers,

The Branches has been unusually quiet this week as our Year 6 Children completed their SATS. I am incredibly proud of how hard they have all worked. They have all shown great determination, dedication and maturity. Thank you to all of the staff who have supported the children throughout the week. Finally thank you also to the all of the other children in school who have all been very respectful during the week ensuring that they were being extra quiet when moving around the school site in the morning.

On Wednesday this week we welcomed parents/carers of our Year 2 children into school for their Learn Together Afternoon. They took part in various activities around the topic "Living Things and their Habitats". I hope that all of you that attended enjoyed your time.

The Roots Hall became Ancient Egypt on Thursday when our children from Year 3 took part in their "History off the Page" day. The children emersed themselves into many different activities all about the Egyptians. Thanks to those parents/carers that came in to help on the day.

Next week.....

On Monday our children from EYFS are welcoming the animals from Ark Farm into school for a visit.

On Wednesday next week it is our Sports Day, the events will take place on The Branches field.

9:15-11:15AM - Years 1, 2 & 3
1:15-3:15PM - Years 4,5 & 6

I look foward to seeing as many of you as possible on Wednesday.

Friday next week is Break The Rules day at Potton Primary School. Further information will be sent out early next week detailing the rules that can be broken on the day.

Wishing you all a lovely weekend.

Kindest regards

Miss J Watts

Headteacher

Eco-Schools Green Flag Award

We're a Green Flag School – with Distinction!

We are incredibly proud to share the fantastic news that Potton Primary School has been awarded the Eco-Schools Green Flag Award with Distinction for 2026.

This award celebrates the commitment, enthusiasm and hard work of our pupils, staff and wider school community in caring for the environment and making a real difference.

The assessors were particularly impressed by how much we have raised the profile of environmental awareness across the school, with pupils showing real pride, responsibility and enthusiasm for eco-friendly actions. Our Eco-Committee was highly praised for becoming such a popular and purposeful group, with children enjoying being directly involved in leading change.

They also highlighted the transformation of our sensory garden and courtyard garden, which are now welcoming, calming spaces for everyone to enjoy. These areas have had a hugely positive impact on pupils' wellbeing, providing calm places to learn, reflect and connect with nature.

This award is a wonderful recognition of how our pupils are helping to shape a greener, more sustainable future – and how proud they are to be Eco-Champions for our school.

A huge thank you to our Eco-Committee, Gardening Club, staff and families for your continued support. We're excited to keep building on this success next year!

WHEN BAD THINGS HAPPEN ONLINE

Tips for dealing with bad things happening:

- 1 Use parental controls, but check in regularly with children about how they feel these are working.
"Children are going to try their hardest to bypass parental controls and screen time limits [...] it needs to be [...] a collaborative approach where the parent and the child kind of decide together, kind of compromise."
- 2 Set clearly thought out, specific boundaries on social media usage and consequences for inappropriate use - and explain them.
Have times built in to discuss changes to restrictions e.g. loosening them with age or applying different restrictions to certain apps that you feel are particularly harmful.
- 3 Confiscating your child's phone doesn't always have to be the answer when something goes wrong.
Children said they worry about losing their phones or having them taken away as punishment, and that stops them asking for help. You may instead want to think about setting rules about safe boundaries and usage. See "setting rules" section for more help with this. Be honest about the situations that would result in their phone being taken and come to an agreement about this so they know it could happen and the reasons behind it. And importantly, stick to these.
- 4 Know how and where to report things.
It is never ok for a child to be harmed or put at risk, so know that you are right to report something bad if it happens. Social media platforms have reporting functions, but you may want to go to a third party because platforms response times and outcomes vary. This guide has links to support and reporting services you can go to if something goes wrong online or you think your child is at risk.

Here are some reporting services you can use in specific situations:

Online sexual abuse or grooming
You can report your concerns directly to CEOP, the National Crime Agency's Child Exploitation and Online Protection Command. You can also call the police.

Bullying
For information on how to support your child if you suspect they are being bullied, visit the NSPCC website. Childline are available to talk to online, on the phone, any time. Your child can call 0800 1111 or visit their website.

Nude image sharing
If your child is worried a sexual image or video of them may have been shared online, they can report to Childline and the Internet Watch Foundation's Report Remove tool. This helps children and young people report an image or video shared online, to see if it is possible to get it removed.

Speak to your child's school
They should have a policy to deal with incidents of bullying and sexual harassment/abuse and can help you to support your child.

WHEN BAD THINGS HAPPEN ONLINE

Signs to look out for

We asked children which behaviours might signal that something has gone wrong online. Here are the themes they mentioned.

Children's behaviour can change for a number of reasons. If you notice any of these, consider whether online behaviour or experiences could explain the change. Have a look at the Signposting to other support services page for places you can go for advice including where you can get immediate help.
